HOW TO LOVE LIKE JESUS
STUDY GUIDE

Numbers 13:1-2, 17-20, 25-33 Numbers 14: 1-10, 20-24

Observation questions

1. What instructions did Moses give the twelve spies before they entered Canaan?
2. What did all twelve spies agree about the Promised Land?
3. How did Caleb respond to the report of the other spies?
4. How did the Israelites react after hearing the report from the ten spies?
5. What reasons did Joshua and Caleb give for entering the land?
6. According to the sermon, what were the four characteristics of Caleb's "different spirit"?

Interpretation questions

1. Why do you think God instructed Israel to explore the land even though He had already promised it to them?
2. Pastor Justin said, "What you see and how you see it are not always the same." What does that statement teach about faith?
3. Why did the ten spies focus on the obstacles instead of God's promise?
4. What does Israel's desire to return to Egypt reveal about fear and human nature?
5. Pastor Justin said, "Facts inform us, but they shouldn't form us." What does that mean?
6. Why is obedience often required before God provides complete clarity?
7. How does fear affect our ability to trust God's promises today?

Application questions

1. Recognize: Which of Caleb's four qualities—a different perspective, obedience, influence, or perseverance—stands out as most needed in your life right now?
2. Examine your heart: Is there an area where comfort, familiarity, or security has become more appealing than obedience? Whose voice has the greatest influence on your thinking—God's voice, the opinions of others, or your own fears?
3. Repent: Have you allowed fear, doubt, or negativity to become your default response instead of faith? Are there ways you've resisted God's leading because you wanted certainty before taking a step of obedience?
4. Reconnect: How can you be a Caleb or Joshua for someone else who feels overwhelmed by the obstacles in front of them?
5. Don't gamble with grace: How can you demonstrate this week that you trust God's promises more than your fears? What is one specific act of obedience you will commit to this week?
